

JOINT FAIR BOOTH WINS BACKING IN CENTERVILLE

Support for the Washington Township booth at the Alameda County Fair next month was accorded Monday by the Centerville Chamber of Commerce.

Gene Manning, secretary of the Township Chamber, exhibited a scale model of the proposed booth and asked backing from Centerville on a pro-rated basis with the Township's other seven Chambers.

The booth will have a large map of the Township as its central attraction, painted by local artists, and labelled "The Sunny End of the County." Wing panels will display photographs of local agriculture, industry, homes, churches and public buildings.

Manning estimated the booth will cost "around $300," and explained he is seeking financial support from business and industry which benefits from advertising the Township.

Louis Cardoza then asked the Centerville Chamber to vote to help underwrite any remaining deficit, and the motion carried.

BIG TURNOUT FOR CANDIDATE MEET

More than 300 persons attended Tuesday's "Meet Your Candidates" rally in Washington Union High School auditorium.

Sponsored by the Eden-Washington Farm Bureau Center, the meeting was designed to give local voters a closer look at candidates in the June 3 primary.

The meeting was moderated by Bob Letts, radio commentator, who allowed each candidate 10 minutes to present his views, then directed audience queries.

Those appearing included Judges E. A. Quaresma and Allen G. Norris, Rep. George P. Miller, Charles C. McGonegal and Bruce Michael, Supervisor Chester E. Stanley was represented by Francis Vukota, deputy district attorney; while Assemblyman Francis Dunn spoke for Rep. Clinton McKinnon, opposing Sen. William F. Knowland.

HOSPITAL REWARDS LOCAL GRAY LADIES

The Veterans Administration Hospital at Livermore presented awards to a group of Washington Township Red Cross Gray Ladies on May 21, as part of a nationwide award day observed annually in recognition of services performed for patients by Red Cross Workers.

The women who received the awards and presented with corsages were: Mmes. Lou Moser, Alice Tuchsens, Mary Erickson, Jacqueline Berg, Estelle Rigmalden, Nelly Talley, Virginia Mottershaw, Gladys Calhoun, Elsie Madruga, Marie Duarte, Bertha Spurrier, Ann Rose, Lucille Day and Lucretia Michael.

VETERANS DEDICATE $65,000 ANNEX TO NILES MEMORIAL BUILDING FRIDAY

Dedicatory ceremonies will be held here Friday, Memorial Day, for the $65,000 annex to the Township's veterans memorial building in Niles.

The structure was completed last February. It includes a 200-seat dining room, a meeting room for veterans' auxiliaries, rest rooms, a remodeled kitchen and other facilities.

The original building, which cost $60,000, was dedicated just 22 years ago—in 1930. It consists principally of an auditorium and meeting halls.

Chief speaker at the current dedication will be Alameda County District Attorney Frank Coakley, veteran of two World Wars. The dedicatory address will be made by Supervisor Chester E. Stanley.

Funds for the building and the annex came from a county special tax levied for this purpose. After a 15-minute concert by the Washington High band under the direction of Dwight Thornburg, the ceremony will begin at 2 p.m.

Presentation of the colors will be followed by the National Anthem, and an invocation by the Rev. John M. Peffer.

Commander Leland Steinmetz of Washington Township Post 195, American Legion, and Commander William A. Marlen of Vallejo Mills Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will make the opening addresses.

The program will conclude with singing of "America." Chairman of the committee which supervised construction is Patrick E. Pine. Lawrence W. Pine is vice-chairman, and Frank X. Veit is secretary. Members of the commission include George L. Smith, Jack K. Pool, LeRoy A. Brown, Norman B. Collins and Marlen.

Junior officers will be Dan Davis, president; Raul Orozco, vice-president; Connie Emmett, secretary; Joanne Berry, treasurer; Louisa Campa, yell leader; Chester Caldeira, student council; Bette Lewis, girls' league representative.

Sophomores: George George, president; Archie de Lao, vice-president; Marlene Dutra, secretary; Jeany Cheng, treasurer; Cantos Villa, yell leader; Edwina Knox, student council; Alberta Abreu, girls' league representative.

The new officers were installed Tuesday.

MESSANGER POSITION OPEN AT NEWARK P. O.

Sealed bids for mail messenger service between Newark post office and Centerville post office, and between Newark post office and the Southern Pacific depot at Newark will be received at the Newark post office up to and including June 4, according to Julia Harris, postmistress. Bids and information may be obtained at the post office.

TOWNSHIP MERGER ADVANCED

NILES JUNK YARD REVIVAL FAILS BEFORE CHAMBER

A try to revive the issue of an auto-wrecking yard on the highway at Niles failed Tuesday when the Niles Chamber of Commerce refused to reconsider its rejection of the project.

M. A. McDermott appeared before the Chamber in an effort to gain approval for the yard, which he said will rent his property for $30 a month.

The Niles Chamber in April turned down the idea, and on May 5, so did the Alameda County Planning commission.

But McDermott took the issue over the head of the commission to the Board of Supervisors, which turned it back to the planners for a re-hearing.

This took place Wednesday, and according to R. J. Wright of Irvington, commission chairman, the group "saw no reason to change its stand" against wrecking yards along main highways.

McDermott circulated petitions asking that Niles businessmen and residents okeh the yard, which would be operated by Eugene Haze.

Then he appeared at the Chamber luncheon, and assured the group:

"It's only for a year, and I will see that the lessees conform to all laws and erect an 8-foot fence to prevent the yard from becoming unsightly."

Told that neighbors are objecting to the plan, McDermott said:

"There are some cars on the site already, for storage, and maybe that affected them." Then he declared a wrecking yard would be "an asset" to Niles, providing scrap for the steel mill, as well as a convenience for car-wormers and mechanics.

"I for one doubt a wrecking yard will improve the value of property in Niles," commented Richard Nicklassen.

President Clifford Dennis asked if anyone favored changing the Chamber's stand. Nobody spoke, so Dennis declared:

"We'd better let the matter stand."

399,122 REGISTERED IN ALAMEDA CO.

Alameda County registrants for the June 3 primary total just under 400,000, Secretary of State Frank Jordan announced last week.

Total eligible is 399,122, Jordan said, out of a California-wide aggregate of 5,383,521.

Alameda County has 223,465 registered Democrats against 163,678 Republicans, Jordan's figures showed. Independent-Progressives had 1280 registered, and 10,026 declined to state a party preference.

Republican registration picked up in 52 of the 58 counties, Jordan said.

TWO LOCAL RACES HOLD SPOTLIGHT IN TUESDAY'S ELECTION

Washington Township, like the rest of California, goes to the polls next Tuesday to vote on two hotly-contested local offices and a pair of equally-heated national races.

Public offices—and public drinking places—will be closed all day Tuesday while the balloting goes on in 37 different precincts within the Township. The voting ends at 7 p.m.

With about half the area's 21,000 inhabitants eligible, forecasts on the size of the ultimate vote differ. Some think it will be heavy, others light.

On the local scene, Supervisor Chester E. Stanley of Livermore is seeking his third term against Bruce Michael, Warm Springs rancher.

And this year's consolidation of the two local justice courts into a single judiciary district pits the incumbent Justices, Allen G. Norris and E. A. Quaresma, against each other for the single post.

For Congress, Rep. George P. Miller of Alameda, a Democrat, and Charles C. McGonegal, Sunol Republican, have cross-filed on each ticket as permitted under California statute. But each must win the vote of his own party or be declared out.

The same applies to the Senate race, in which Sen. William F. Knowland of Oakland, is opposed for his third term by Clinton D. McKinnon, Democratic Congressman from San Diego.

Unopposed are Francis Dunn Jr., assemblyman; County Clerk John J. Kingston; and three superior judges: A. Victor Wagner, A. J. Woolsey, and Cecil Mosbacher.

Democrats have their choice of a slate of National Convention delegates committed to Sen. Estes Kefauver or one favoring Cal-

MYSTERY WOMAN WAS TENNIS CHAMP

We don't want to seem to be favoring the men in our weekly "guess who" game, as many of our township women are as worthy of being written up as are the men, so this week we'll give you a thumb-nail sketch of one of our most interesting township women. If you can't guess her identity, turn through the pages of The Register. You will find the answer.

Born in Merced, she grew up and went to schools in San Francisco. In San Francisco she was secretary to the president of Western Life Insurance Company.

In 1925 she moved to Los Angeles, and became secretary to the head architect in the firm of Meyer and Holden.

She met her husband in Los Angeles, and was married in 1925. He was in the real estate business at that time.

She was the top-ranking tennis star at the Beverly Hills Municipal Tennis Club in 1933-34. She has played tennis with international tennis stars.

She and her husband lost everything in the stock-market crash, and moved to Northern California, where he started supplying Safeway Stores with a product, which later brought fame, prestige, and even gold medals to him and his wife.

Incorporation Survey Asked

Incorporation of the whole of Washington Township as one political unit loomed a possibility this week as protests against alleged high-handed treatment of this end of Alameda County were made before the Centerville Chamber of Commerce.

LeRoy Broun, secretary of the Centerville Chamber, asked and got permission to find an expert who can make a survey of the bustling Township with a view to incorporation.

The Chamber told Broun: 1. To inform the other seven Township chambers that he is seeking such a survey.

2. To ask other chambers to approve the policy of making a survey to obtain facts about incorporation.

It was the first concrete move to incorporate the Township. Past tries to incorporate individual towns have failed.

The sensational development came unannounced when Lee Williams, rancher, rose at the Monday luncheon to comment on last week's rejection of 120 homes in Newark by the County Planning Commission.

"We should give some thought to (Gordon) Cotton's comment that the Planning Commission does all its planning in Oakland," Williams declared. "If we don't do some planning of our own, they'll put trailer courts, subdivisions and industry wherever they see fit—and we down here will have no voice in the matter at all."

Broun immediately picked up the ball. He said:

"We must take some concerted move that will give us our own local government."

"If there should be incorporation here, the whole Township should incorporate."

Broun, an attorney, explained it is highly likely that the State Legislature next spring will pass a law backed by city-dwellers which will require unincorporated areas with population of more than 300 per square mile to pay direct taxes for utilities, streets, and police and fire protection, just like cities.

This, he added, will remove any financial advantage now enjoyed by unincorporated sections.

"We must plan ahead," warned Broun. "Pleasanton and Livermore are incorporated. Lafayette is getting ready to incorporate. We down here have never seen any real facts about it."

Broun said that, on his own initiative, he last week asked the University of California where experts on government can be obtained to gather and evaluate such facts.

He said the head of the UC Department of Political Science said (1) graduate students might do the job—for a fee, or (2) political science "interns" from the Coro Foundation in San Francisco.

ENOS ADS IMPRESS AT P.M.'S CONFAB

Washington Township received plenty of free advertising last week at the annual convention of California's postmasters in San Jose.

Edward E. Enos of Niles, retiring president of the California Association of Postmasters, presented his 400 delegates with:

1. Special tile plaques of welcome, from the California Pottery Company of Niles.
2. Containers of salt from Leslie Salt Company, Newark.
3. Douglas fir trees from Edenvale Nursery, Niles.
4. Rulers from Centerville Electric Company.
5. Pencils from the Niles Electric Company.
6. Matches from the Central Bank of Niles.

Enos spent most of the week in San Jose presiding at sessions of the association.

SICK LIST

One new case of chickenpox, another of mumps, and four of streptococcus infection were reported in Washington Township this week by Dr. James Malcolm, county health officer.

SOMETHING TO REMEMBER

Memorial Day this year brings an especially solemn feeling. Not seven years have passed since the end of the costliest war in our history. We are ending the second year of another blood-bath, and there appears an even chance that most of us will see at least the start of a wider conflict.

This could be cause for gloom, or it could be the start of a high resolve. Either the dead have died in vain, or the living have learned a lesson. The lesson, of course, is that war must be avoided. And since the Communist nations pointedly do not avoid war, we cannot afford to put the lesson into practice all by ourselves, and simply say that we will not go to war. We have learned at least this much of the lesson: appeasement by the sheep will not keep the wolves away.

Knowing that, we have to face the second part of the lesson: mere defensive measures are not enough to prevent war. This nation must seize the initiative, use every ounce of the wisdom and energy that put us on top economically to win out in the field of international affairs. We must wage peace as we once waged war.

We have something to sell—freedom and a chance for a better standard of living. But we have to convince the rest of the non-Communist world, and we have to assure the weaker nations that America will protect them while we are selling them our product. Up to now, we have done so only in a hit-or-miss fashion. It is past time that we started a sales campaign, organized systematically with quotas, progress charts and everything that makes a campaign successful.

Otherwise we are a dead cinch to take a licking in 1952, or 1954, or 1970—sometime. That is something to re-

UNDER FALSE COLORS

Masquerading behind a phony front, a determined band of right-wing politicians is out to pull a back-door grab of California's 70 delegates to the Republican National Convention. The slate pledged to Representative Thomas H. Werdel, though crammed with Governor Warren's enemies like witch-hunter Jack Tenney, has a deeper purpose than to discredit the governor in his home state.

Almost without exception, Werdel's delegates are outspoken admirers of Senator Taft. They know a Taft ticket wouldn't stand a Chinaman's chance in California. So the Werdel bunch call themselves a "free" ticket, one that "might" go for Eisenhower, Stassen—or Taft—anyone but Warren. Actually they intend to give their votes in a block to Taft, and their records prove it.

Governor Warren, on the other hand, is a bona-fide candidate for the presidency, one who might be a compromise choice if the Taft and Eisenhower forces come to a deadlock. However, it is likely that this will not happen. It is a better bet that Warren will release his delegation after the first few ballots. This would mean that the Warren delegates then could vote as their consciences and the voices of their home folks dictate, not as a "bossed" combine.

The Werdel group claims that a vote for Werdel means a vote for Eisenhower. This claim has been denounced as a falsehood by Eisenhower's campaign headquarters in Northern California and elsewhere.

The facts are that a vote for Werdel is a vote for Taft and isolationism, and for nobody else. On the other hand, far from being a "captive" delegation, Warren's group contains both our U.S. Senators, outstanding Congressmen, and others who can be counted on to vote for the man best qualified to carry the G.O.P. banner in November.

Republican voters should remember these facts next Tuesday, and refuse to be fooled by the Werdel claims. They make up as unfair a bag of political wool as anyone ever tried to pull over the eyes of the electorate.

Putting the lesson into practice is something we owe ourselves and those who died to keep the oppressor's boot off our necks.

M'ELROY HELPS HUSKY B'S TO THIRD

By BOB HIRD

Mountain View's Eagles, led by triple winner John Escano, clinched the 1952 S.C.V.A.L. track title before 2000 shirt-sleeved fans at Fremont High in Sunnyvale last Friday night.

Escano, who stands six feet, five inches, took firsts in the broad jump, hop-step-and-jump and 120-high hurdles, to rack up 24 points for the night.

The Eagles compiled 71½ points with Fremont a close second with 61½. Santa Clara had 48, Los Gatos 38, James Lick 30, Washington 10 and Campbell 7.

As for the B. C. and D. divisions, the Fremont Redskins dominated them all. They swept the B's with a total of 73 2/3 points, while Campbell had 51 1/6, Washington 39½, Santa Clara 19 2/3, James Lick 17, Los Gatos 11½, and Mountain View three.

The Indians edged Lick in the C division, compiling 56 5/6 points to Lick's 52 5/6. Santa Clara was next with 35½, Campbell 28½, Mountain View 15, Los Gatos 12½ and Washington seven.

The Fremont D's grabbed 44½ points, Campbell 34, Santa Clara 32½, James Lick 29, Los Gatos 26½, Washington 9 3/4 and Mountain View 3 5/6.

Two new valley marks were posted in the varsity division. Max Voshall, Los Gatos' ace 880 runner, set one record as he stepped the half mile in a fast time of 2:01.9 to better the old record of 2:02.3.

Santa Clara's fast relay quintet posted the other record as they swept the relay in 1:32.9. The old mark was 1:33.1 set by Mountain View in 1950.

Antoine Rigmalden showed best for the Washington Varsity as he tied for second in the high jump. Marty Sammon took a fourth in the 100-yard dash and a fifth in the 220.

Ralph McElroy captured three firsts to head the Husky's B team. He won the high and low hurdles and the hop-step-and-jump.

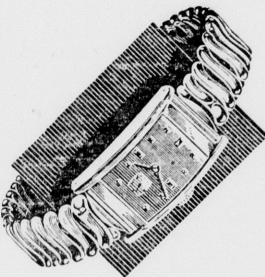

McElroy missed both the low and high hurdle records by 1/10 second.

SEEK HARBALL SPONSOR

Coach Irv Hird is seeking a sponsor for a baseball club composed of his high school diamond stars. Uniforms and expenses will cost around $150, he estimates.

Hird is anxious to keep his club intact during the holidays.

BEARCATS, 7 TO 0

By TONY ROGERS

Centerville's Bearcat nine ran into a caged tiger last Sunday and dropped a 7-0 decision to the San Quentin All-Stars at the prison.

Ralph Schwamb, former St. Louis Brown's pitcher, locked the gate on the Bearcats, allowing only two hits—singles by George Sweeney and Bud Marshall.

In addition, the formidable Schwamb rapped out three safeties of his own. He fanned 13 men.

The Centerville club held the All-Stars well in check until the fifth stanza. Pete Quarello's pitching limited the prison nine to three hits and a single run. Then Quarello developed a sore arm and was relieved by John Garcia.

San Quentin quickly racked up four runs on Garcia off three hits and a walk. Harold Belsher then came in with only one away and retired the side, but the damage was already done.

Outstanding defensive series of the game was staged by the Bearcats in the second inning. With no outs, and two men in scoring position, Third Baseman Larry Fernandez scooped up a torrid grounder, and tossed one runner out at home. The following batter smashed a drive to Shortstop Don Lemos, who rifled the ball to Stan Roderick at first for the second out. Roderick's throw to Catcher Don Milton was in time to catch the runner for a double play.

The 'Cats try a comeback here Sunday against the Guadalupe Parlor, NSGW, Club of San Francisco. The game starts at 2 p.m. announced.

IS SOFTBALL DODO
IN TOWNSHIP?

Fearful that summer softball is dying out in Washington Township, Commissioner J. R. "Pete" Nunes today issued a call for the organization of four more teams.

"Last year we had eight in the Township Softball Association," Nunes declared. "This year to date only four have indicated they want to play."

The night games normally attract a good crowd, Nunes explained, but a four-team league would be unprofitable.

He named the four that have signed as American Forge, Kleine's, L & V, and Olwell Berry Farm.

"Either we start soon or we'll have to forget it for a year," the Centerville commissioner said.

QUEEN NAMED FOR MISSION HOLY GHOST

Judy Strub of Irvington has been named queen of the Mission San Jose Holy Ghost festival, and will be crowned at St. Joseph Church next Sunday morning following the parade.

The two-day festival opens with a dance at IDES Hall Saturday night.

Sunday noon a barbecue will be served at the hall, and dancing and auctions will follow.

Patsy Pereira and Marlene Mendoza have been chosen as the queen's maids.

operation than she and her husband could manage, so they bought land in the township and started making this product for their own distribution. It turned into a very profitable business.

She was the charter president of a local P.T.A. unit, and was instrumental in building a new elementary school.

She has been president of the Phoebe A. Hearst Council, P.T.A., and vice-president of the Sixteenth District, P.T.A.

She is the only woman in California who operates the particular business she is in, and has been written up in the national magazine, "House and Garden."

She believes in life-long learning. It is a distinct compliment to her that she has been asked to join several different university women's clubs. Her higher learning, however, was obtained entirely outside of university walls.

When the United Nations was organized in San Francisco, her husband (now deceased) was a delegate at large, and, at their home here, they entertained important state dignitaries at informal dinners, including Archibald Macleish.

The thing about life she likes best is being a mother, a grandmother — and entertaining her friends at her home.

Off to New York

The Rev. Arthur Freeman of Centerville left last Saturday by train for Lockport, New York. He will visit his brother there, and plans to return in a couple of weeks.

In the meanwhile, Mrs. Freeman, who has been recuperating from a recent operation, is well enough now to return to Centerville School, where she teaches the third grade.

Decoto Girl to Marry Saturday

Miss Esther Abel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joaquin Abel of Decoto, will be married this Saturday, May 31, to Mr. Larry Repoll of Hayward. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Repoll.

The double-ring ceremony will be performed at All Saints Church in Hayward, with a reception to be held at the Country Club in Centerville at four o'clock.

Miss Abel has asked her sister, Mrs. Alfred Gonzales of Hayward, to be her honor attendant. The other attendant will be Catherine Gaitero, Mr. Repoll's aunt.

After their honeymoon, the couple will live in Hayward.

Honeymoon in Mexico

A trip to Mexico City and Acapulco is the honeymoon planned by William Nielsen White, son of Mr. and Mrs. William White of Irvington, and Merle Hundley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hundley of Whittier.

The vow-exchange will take place this Saturday afternoon at a three o'clock ceremony to be performed at the First Methodist Church in San Jose.

Mr. White is a graduate of Hollister high school and also attended the University of California for two years. He is connected with a plumbing company in San Jose. Miss Hundley, a resident of San Jose, is a public health nurse in that city.

A reception is being planned for the pair at the church, immediately following the ceremony. They will live in San Jose upon their return from Mexico.

Reno Wedding

The Presbyterian Church in Reno last Saturday was the locale for the wedding ceremony that united Nila Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mel Bennett of Centerville, and Clarence Cobden, son of Mrs. Nell Cobden of Hayward.

The bride is a graduate of Washington High. Her husband, who attended schools in Hayward, is employed at the Rheem Manufacturing Company in Newark.

After a week's honeymoon, the couple will return to Centerville to make their home.

Wedding Bells Ring Again

An epidemic of weddings has broken out in the Abney family of Niles. Two weeks ago Mary Lou Abney was married to Harold Knight at a Reno ceremony.

This Sunday, her brother, Ira, will be married to Rosemary Hauselof of Oakland at a ceremony to be performed at the Chapel of the Chimes in Oakland, with a reception following in San Leandro.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Froscio are becoming experienced hands at "standing up" at weddings, for they were tapped for best man and matron of honor roles at both ceremonies. Mrs. Froscio is an Abney.

The bridegroom-elect, employed as a surveyor, will take his bride on a two weeks' honeymoon. They will live in Niles.

Stewards Home Again

Rev. and Mrs. Howard Steward and family returned Monday of this week from a three weeks' vacation to the midwest. This coming Sunday, June 1, Mr. Steward will preside at the Lord's Table for the Sacrament of the Holy Communion at the Centerville Presbyterian Church.

BIRDS HOST PARTY FOR BALL TEAM

Eighteen members of the W.U. H.S. ball club were guests of Coach Irving Hird and Mrs. Hird at a "feed" last week in the high school cafeteria.

After dining sumptuously on beans ("I cooked three pounds!" said Mrs. Hird), salads, home-made cakes, milk, and other food beloved by young athletes, the whole group took off for Oakland where they watched the Oaks play ball.

An enthusiastic participant in the end-of-the-season party was Principal "Pop" Gould.

The Coast Guard Air Station, responsible for air-sea rescue work, is at the S. F. Municipal Airport.

Broun said he will contact the foundation this week.

"Our present type of government is unsatisfactory," Broun charged. "We're being run by a bunch of Oakland real estate operators, who fear competition from this end of the county."

"The city people say we aren't paying our share. They're going to stick us for lights and so on. All right! We've got to get the answers. This is the way to do it."

Williams seconded Broun's statement, saying: "The longer we put it off, the less we'll have to say about it. New people are coming in and maybe we'll have them to convince."

"Maybe they'll subdivide the Patterson Ranch and the people there will want to belong to Oakland like Hillview Crest wants to belong to Hayward!"

Added Romeo Brunelli: "Sooner or later the Township will be all one town. The sooner the better."

Chamber President Jack Coley asked if anyone would put the sentiment in the form of a motion to back the idea of a survey, and Dr. E. M. Grimmer Jr. made it. The motion passed by acclaim.

Broun today was preparing letters to inform other Chambers of Commerce of the action.

The Centerville group also voted to ask Planning Commission President R. J. Wright of Irvington and Commission Secretary John Thomas to its next session to answer queries on the subject.

The Centerville drive got its first reinforcements Tuesday night when the Irvington Chamber voted to ask the Township Chamber to "investigate without prejudice the incorporation of the Township."

The Irvington move was sparked by Wallace Pond, who said he has been interested in such a survey for several months.

"Good idea," commented Dr. E. M. Grimmer Sr. "We want to look before we leap."

WINK YOU KNOW WHERE YOU LIVE?

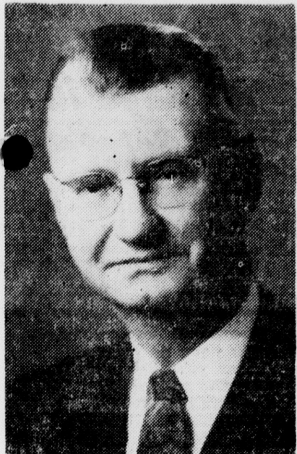

A complaint last week that street-names in Washington Township are confusing—if not worse—won an echo today from a local fire chief.

Roland Bendel, chief of the Decoto Department, added his bit to the comments of the Niles Chamber of Commerce, and said: "Pity the poor doctor, deputy sheriff, fireman, or just plain visitor who wants to find where you live."

Bendel listed a few duplications

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

which he considers most confusing:

1. There are four "Walnuts"—Walnut Avenue in Centerville, Walnut Street in Newark and Irvington, Walnut Way in Niles.

2. Cedar Road exists in both Mission San Jose and Newark, Elm Street crops up in Newark and Centerville, Railroad Avenue appears in Decoto and Warm Springs, and (as a "street") in Irvington.

3. There is a Central Avenue in Centerville, a Central Road in Alvarado, a Cherry Road in Newark and a Cherry Lane in Niles. Pine Street is not only in Mission San Jose but in Centerville too.

4. Smith Street in Alvarado finds a cousin in Newark's Smith Avenue, while School Street in Niles sometimes is confused with School Road in Newark. Williams Avenue in Niles has a duplicate in Irvington.

But, says Bendel, this is not the worst.

Take Alvarado: Alquire Avenue changes midway to Valle Vista Road. Granger Avenue becomes Granger Road, and Beard Street turns into Beard Road near Alviso School.

Decoto Road switches to Jarvis Road at Highway 17.

In Niles, Morrison Canyon Road is sometimes Morrison Avenue.

Santos Avenue itself undergoes a transformation to Mowry Road, then to Mowry Landing Road.

To the south, a bigger mud-dle arises. Vargas Road disappears off Santos Avenue, pops up again on Mission Hill, then peters out near the Warm Springs "Y."

And to cap it off, says Bendel, a Newark motorist who gets on Station Road soon finds himself on Addition Road, then Boice Road, which ALSO is known as Cherry Avenue!

Here's a riddle for you . . . Why is television like a book? You haven't guessed it? This time we're not talking about entertainment or information. We're giving you a big tip on lighting . . . the problem of eye strain. It's just as important to choose the right set as it is to buy the right reading lamp. That's the answer to the riddle and here's why it's important.

TV can actually rest your eyes from close day-time work . . . if you buy a quality set. There's lots of research involved in producing "picture power." And it's for eye safety that such experiments have been done . . . so that folks can watch TV without the problem of eye tension from flickering, blur or poor mingling of dark and light.

In these times, eyes are subjected to more intensive usage. We spend a good part of our time working under artificial lights and doing pretty exacting tasks. When evening comes, our eyes need relaxation as much as our bodies do. And that's where television steps forward. A good set offers no eye strain . . . even for children, who tend to view the TV screen from as close as possible. So when you buy your set, make sure you know your dealer . . . and can depend on filtered light and clear, steady pictures. Why don't you come and talk it over with us? We're always proud to show you our TOP sets with "picture power."

When you buy a Hoffman set, your eyes will thank you. The golden lens is tops in every way . . . for easy, clear television . . . for steady, straight pictures. Come in soon and ask to see the Hoffman. Rely on our expert technicians to install and service your set at
